We are family

The delicious story so far...

Noodle Nation is a family owned and operated business. Inspired by the bustling street cafes of Hong Kong, we wanted to open a place where our customers could eat great value, freshly cooked oriental food in a relaxed atmosphere.

On a whim, we gave up our jobs and with help from our family & friends, we opened our first Noodle Nation in 2000. Although we have opened more restaurants, we don't consider ourselves a chain. We're hands on and passionate about our business and everything to do with it - our customers, our food and our team.

We love what we do and want everyone to join our Noodle Nation!
